You and 2 family members	£165
You and 3 family members	£220
You and more than 3 family members	Add £55 to the amount above for each additional family member

- Debit card - Delta, Maestro* (including Solo)

* Maestro - We can accept only Maestro cards issued in the UK.

<sup>1</sup> Please note that when making large or multiple payments using your credit card, the anti fraud measures that banks operate sometimes stop the full payment being taken. This is because either the maximum limit on a single transaction, or the number of transactions allowed in a given period of time, has been exceeded. To prevent this you must ensure that you inform your bank of your intention to make large or multiple payments in advance so that your bank allows the full payment to be taken when you submit your application.

Cheques and postal orders

You must make the cheque or postal order payable to 'Home Office' and cross the cheque or postal order A/C Payee only. Please write the full name and date of birth of the applicant on the back of the cheque and/or each postal order and keep the postal order receipt(s). Please make sure that the date and the amount (words and figures) are correct and that the cheque is signed properly. Attach your cheque or postal order(s) to the front of the application form.

A16-A17 Cardholder's signature - the person named on the credit/debit card must sign and date these sections.

Consideration process

- If the payment submitted does not cover the full cost of your application, it will be an invalid application and the form, together with any documentation submitted, will be returned to you.

- The fee charged is for the processing and consideration of the application. This fee will be payable once the application form is received by the Home Office or its payment processing agent, regardless of the outcome of the application.

If section 5 (Surinder Singh cases) has been completed: evidence that you and your British citizen family member resided in another EEA member state at a time when they were a worker or self-employed person in that member state, such as tenancy agreements, bank statements, utility bills. You should also refer to the section below for employment or self-employment as applicable.

If section 6 (employment) has been completed: this can include contracts of employment, letter(s) from your employer(s) confirming your employment or your most recent wage slips (at least one) should be provided. These should feature a full National Insurance Number rather than a temporary one. If you have also completed section 5 (Surinder Singh cases) you must provide the above specified evidence to show that your British citizen family member was employed in another EEA member state.

If section 7 (self-employment) has been completed: this can include evidence to show you are self-employed, e.g. a lease on business premises, HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) self-assessment forms, business bank statements, invoices or receipts or National Insurance contributions. If you have also completed section 5 (Surinder Singh cases) you must provide the above specified evidence to show that your British citizen family member was self-employed in another EEA member state.

If section 8 (students) has been completed: Evidence of a school, college or university letter confirming enrolment on a course of study, evidence of comprehensive sickness insurance (see section below on comprehensive sickness insurance) and evidence of funds available to you such as a bank statement, a document confirming the receipt of a grant or scholarship, or a declaration of sufficient funds.

If section 9 (economically self-sufficient, jobseeker or incapacitated) has been completed: Evidence of comprehensive sickness insurance for the EEA national exercising Treaty rights and any family members included in the application (see section below on comprehensive sickness insurance). Evidence of funds to show you are economically self-sufficient, e.g. a bank statement. If these funds come from a family member, evidence of their employment or funds should be supplied. Evidence to show you are retired, e.g. document(s) confirming the receipt of a pension.

Evidence of your unemployment such as letters from your last employer. Evidence that you have registered as unemployed with Jobcentre Plus or a recruitment agency. Evidence of seeking work e.g. copies of application forms or letters of rejection or invite to interview from potential employers. Evidence of vocational or academic qualifications.

Evidence of involuntary/voluntary unemployment such as letters from your last employer and of vocational training such as a letter from the training provider.

Evidence to show you are temporarily incapacitated, e.g. a consultant's letter or medical report confirming temporary incapacity having previously been in employment or self-employment.

As evidence of comprehensive sickness insurance (This requirement only applies to persons exercising Treaty rights as students or self-sufficient persons):

You must provide either a private comprehensive sickness insurance policy document that covers for medical treatment in the majority of circumstances, or a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). The EHIC is only valid when your stay in the UK is on a temporary basis. Therefore if you do provide your EHIC as proof of comprehensive sickness insurance you should also provide a covering letter stating whether it is your intention to stay in the UK on a temporary or permanent basis and your reasons for this. This must be signed and dated by you.

As evidence of relationships:

For family relationships: marriage certificates, civil partnership certificates or birth certificates.

For unmarried partners: proof that you are in a durable relationship. Generally this is proof that you have been in a subsisting relationship for two years or more, such as joint bank or building society statements, joint tenancy agreements, council tax bills or evidence that you are both paying utility bills at the property at which you reside.

As evidence of current residence in the UK by you and your family members:

Proof of residence: this can include tenancy agreements, utility bills and bank statements. For children this could include letters from their school.

As evidence of dependency on your EEA national family member:

For children and grandchildren over 21 and direct relatives in the ascending line: Evidence that the EEA national family member has sufficient funds to maintain you, and that you are, in practice, reliant on these funds to meet your needs such as for example, bank statements and evidence of money transfers.

For more distant relatives such as cousins, nephews and nieces: Evidence that your EEA national family member was maintaining you before your admission to the UK and continues to do so. For example, bank statements and evidence of money transfers. Or that you were a member of the EEA national family household in the country from which they have recently come, and that you are members of the same household in the UK. For example, joint bank or building society statements, joint tenancy agreements, council tax bills or other evidence that you share and have shared the same address.
